CALL TO WORSHIP

Call to Worship (based on Isaiah 25, Psalm 24)

The earth and all that is in it belongs to the Holy One.

Look, here is our God, for whom we have waited.

Together with saints gone before

We belong this day in this Holy sanctuary.

To remember and recognize those who have, together with God informed our living and faith,

And who shall stand in this holy place? We do; Together with saints.

We come, seeking the face of God.

The Greatest Commandment

28 One of the teachers of the law came and heard them debating. Noticing that Jesus had given them a good answer, he asked him, “Of all the commandments, which is the most important?”

29 “The most important one,” answered Jesus, “is this: ‘Hear, O

Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.[a] 30 Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.’[b] 31 The second is this: ‘Love your neighbor as yourself.’[c] There is no commandment greater than these.”

32 “Well said, teacher,” the man replied. “You are right in saying that God is one and there is no other but him. 33 To love him with all your heart, with all your understanding and with all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself is more important than all burnt offerings and sacrifices.”

34 When Jesus saw that he had answered wisely, he said to him, “You are not far from the kingdom of God.” And from then on no one dared ask him any more questions.

A Prayer for All Saints

We give you thanks, O God, for all the saints who ever worshiped you-

Whether in in fields, forest, home churches, modest churches or cathedrals,

Where your name was lifted and adored.

We give you thanks, O God, for hands lifted in praise:

Manicured hands and calloused hands stained with dirt,
grease or soil,

Strong hands and those weak and gnarled with age

Holy hands - used as offerings across the territory and land.

We thank you, God, for hardworking saints;

Whether coveralled, hard-hatted or chore booted or uniformed,

Housedress or aproned or leggings and a pullover or a prom dress

Whether high heels, steel toed, sneakers, tall chore
boots, or good sturdy shoes;

blue-collared or three-piece-suited,

They left their mark on the earth for you, for us, for our children to come.

Thank you, God, for the tremendous sacrifices made by those who have gone before us.

Bless the memories of your saints, God.

May we learn how to walk wisely from their examples of faith, dedication, worship, and love. Amen

No Way to Treat a Child: Obaida's Story

The first time he was detained by Israeli military forces, Obaida was only 14.

Published On: October 22, 2021

(<https://united-church.ca/stories/no-way-treat-child-obaidas-story>)

Military violence exposes children to unimaginable brutality.

"I was on my way to the store when they arrested me," Obaida, a Palestinian child from Al-Arroub refugee camp, says to the camera. "When they took me for interrogation, they bound my hands in plastic cords. They used two of them so that I couldn't move my hands at all. My eyes were covered in a thick blindfold that also covered my nose and made it hard to breathe."

He is talking about the first time he was detained by Israeli military forces. Obaida was only 14.

Palestinians in the West Bank, including East Jerusalem, and the Gaza Strip have lived under Israeli occupation since 1967. Anyone—including children—can be arrested without a warrant if there is suspicion that a "security offence" has been committed.

According to The United Church of Canada's mission partner Defense for Children International–Palestine (DCIP), Israeli forces detain and prosecute around 700 Palestinian children every year. Thirteen thousand Palestinian children have been detained by Israeli forces and held in military detention facilities since 2000. Israel is the only country in the world that routinely convicts children in military courts—which are known to lack fair trial guarantees.

On May 17, 2021, just a month shy of his 18th birthday, Obaida was tragically killed. He was one of the 67 children who were killed by Israeli forces during an 11-day military assault on the Gaza Strip.

Palestinian children, like all children, deserve a childhood that is free of violence. Your Mission & Service gifts support DCIP in defending and promoting the rights of children living in the West Bank, including East Jerusalem, and the Gaza Strip. Thank you for helping to provide a safe and just future for all children.
